SATURDAY'S CROWD AT FAIR SETS RECORD

The South Mountain Fair ended its 40th anniversary season Saturday with "somewhere between 10,000 and 15,000 present."

W. Clayton Jester, vice president of the fair association, said the Saturday crowd was "by far the largest we have ever had. We parked cars in all the regular parking spaces, we parked them in among the cow barns and we even parked them among the farm machinery, and we still didn't have enough space."

Saturday's crowd started early Saturday afternoon and "just kept coming," Jester noted, "until late at night."

4,000 AT RODEO

Four thousand attended the rodeo Saturday at its two performances. There was space for 2,000 at a time to watch the show and each time the space was filled.

As a result, the fair association believes it performed the usually impossible task of "breaking even" on the entertainment. Normally fairs figure on "going in the red" on the shows. But the rodeo proved so popular that fair officials believe had not rain washed out Thursday night's performance, holding attendance down to about 4,000, the fair would have "made money" on the rodeo. As it was, paid admissions to the rodeo were only slightly under the cost of the show and the bleachers which had to be secured for it. But the fair association believes that admissions to the fairsground charged those who came only to see the rodeo made up the deficit.

4-H SHOW PLEASURES

The program put on by the Adams County 4-H Light Horse and Pony Club under direction of its leader, Mrs. Jean Heltzel, proved "even better than we could have anticipated" according to Associate County Agent Joseph Lutz.

The Horse and Pony Club show from 2 noon to 2 p.m. was not a horse show in the usual sense, but rather an exhibition of skill in drills and "fun contests" among the youngsters, and the audience was well pleased with the results. The close order drill by 28 of the riders was termed outstanding.

Fair officials termed the 1963 fair "the best ever" and immediately began plans for next year's presentation.

CASE PENDING IN COURT HERE TO 'MAKE LAW'

The Adams County court this morning heard argument on a case which may help "make law" in Pennsylvania and may free an East Berlin woman, Miss Amelia Agnes Liversberger, of a charge of bookmaking.

According to the arguments presented to the court this morning by Attorneys Robert Smith of York and Gerald Walmer of Gettysburg, state police obtained a search warrant to search Miss Liversberger's car. A search was made April 4 of the car for evidence showing she was engaged in bookmaking. But no evidence was found. She was then taken to the Adams County jail where her person was searched and evidence obtained which led to the bookmaking charge.

Miss Liversberger's attorneys allege that there was no warrant permitting police to search Miss Liversberger's person and as a result the evidence obtained by the "illegal" search of her person should be "suppressed" and not be used against her.

FIRST IN STATE

Amendment IV of the U.S. Constitution guarantees that "the right of the people to be secured in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and the persons or things to be seized."

According to argument before the local court, federal government officials have carefully abided by that rule, but in the states evidence obtained by illegal search and seizure by state officers was admissible in state courts.

However, in 1961 the Supreme Court in Mapp versus Ohio de-

IKE APPROVES TAX CUT WITH SPENDING REIN

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says he favors a federal tax cut, but only if it is accompanied by an approximate $800 million cutback in future federal spending.

Eisenhower issued a statement from his Gettysburg office Sunday clarifying his position regarding the tax cuts proposed by the Kennedy Administration.

The former chief executive took the position that Congress should agree to a tax reduction only if the President pledges to impose a $98 billion ceiling on federal spending until a surplus has been achieved.

BELOW CURRENT LEVEL

The proposed $98 billion ceiling is some $900 million below the current federal budget level.

Eisenhower said various members of Congress had asked his views on the proposed legislation. "It is my conviction that any tax cut without this firm halting of expenditure increases is unwise, undesirable and certain to damage our currency and the nation," he said, adding:

"Before a tax cut can be justified, therefore, I believe that there should be explicit executive assurance of expenditure control. This assurance should be that, until a budgetary surplus has been achieved, future annual expenditures will not be permitted to rise above the already inflated level for this fiscal year of approximately $98,000,000,000."

"Moreover, I am happy that these personal views are in accord with those of the Executive Committee of the Business Committee For Tax Reduction which stated last May, 'The committee believes that a reduction in the 1964 budget is reasonable and practicable' and, in addition, 'We have had large, progressive increases in recent years and there is no justification for continuation of the upward trend.'"

VIOLATOR OF PAROLE IS SENT TO WORKHOUSE

Archie Edward Monn, 20, Fayetteville R. 2, was sentenced to 23 months in the Allegheny County Workhouse by the Adams County court this morning.

Monn was sentenced after his parole was revoked for failure to abide by terms of his parole that he support his wife and make a home for her, and for running away from both Probation Officer D. M. Anderson and state police.

Probation Officer Anderson explained to the court that Monn had faced a charge of statutory assault and contributing to the delinquency of a minor in February term of court. He and the 14-year-old girl went to Maryland and were married - telling the clerk of courts there the girl was 16.

FLED SHOELSS

Since the couple was married and Monn promised to support his wife and child and make a home for her, the court placed him on 23-month probation. Anderson said he was informed August 28 that Monn had left the home, was "dating other women" and was not supporting her.

Anderson said he went to a home along the Fairfield Rd. and found three men and three women there. One of the men was in bed. He said he did not know the others but found the man in bed to be Monn. Monn followed Anderson to Anderson's car, then bolted. Anderson gave chase but then abandoned pursuit. State police took up the search and some time later found Monn at his wife's mother's home. At that time he ran away, shoeless, from the police.

Moon admitted that, instead of going to work as he told his wife he was doing, he was "running around" and on several occasions went to the house where Anderson found him.

James Luther Smith Jr., Trappe, Pa., and Gettysburg R. 2, placed on probation for 18 months by the court August 31 on a charge of driving a car without the owner's consent, had his probation revoked this morning and was sentenced to White Hill State Correctional Institution after Probation Officer Anderson explained that Smith in violation of his parole had been drunk several nights and failed to appear as scheduled before the court Saturday. The most enthusiastic couple to visit former President and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower at their farm here in recent years was His Majesty, Mohammed Zaher, king of Afghanistan, and his wife, Her Majesty, Queen Homaira. They came to the farm for an hour's visit Saturday morning and reluctantly departed an hour and a half later, overstaying their scheduled visit by half an hour.

The king, and his queen, too, showed considerable interest in the large herd of Angus on the Eisenhower acres. Although he does not speak English the king listened intently to every word from his host, and then his interpreter. He asked a great many questions and he received direct replies from General Eisenhower and the latter's herdsman, Robert Hartley.

PATS BIG BULL

So enthused was the king that, at one stop in the fitting barn where he was shown a number of grand and junior champions, he opened a gate and stepped into a stall where a huge bull stood and briskly patted the broad black back and then repeated the act at the urging of photographers. He evidenced not only his interest in cattle but his expert knowledge. He visits his two large farms in Afghanistan almost daily, an aide volunteered.

The royal party dropped down in a huge green and white Marine helicopter at 11 o'clock Saturday morning to find their host awaiting them. General Eisenhower was standing at the edge of his driveway when the whirlbird settled down on a broad expanse of his lush green lawn. In a moment the former President was at the ramp where he clasped the hand of his royal guest and then that of the queen.

He greeted others in the royal party and then escorted them to Mrs. Eisenhower who was waiting a little farther away to avoid the whirl-lash cast by the whirling blades. Mamie then escorted the party into the main house.

CHAUFFEURS KING

When they emerged a short time later General Eisenhower escorted the king to his electric, two-seater golf cart, with a fringe on top, and to the delight of the monarch chauffeured the king to the fitting barn. The ladies followed in a limousine.

Mamie Eisenhower was heard to remark to the queen: "I'm not an enthusiastic farm woman," never having been subjected to farm life during her some 40 years as the wife of a distinguished Army officer. However, she remained with her guests throughout the visit.

Mrs. Eisenhower wore a light brown wool two-piece suit with black shoes. The queen wore white shoes, a silk two-piece print suit, a white straw hat with a curled brim and a brown band. King Zaher wore a dark Ivy League suit, black shoes, white shirt and dark tie. General Eisenhower wore black shoes, dark gray slacks, a dark jacket, white shirt and dark tie. The only man in uniform was his majesty's aide-de-camp, Lieutenant Colonel Abdul Shuhour, who was immaculate with gold trimmed cap, light khaki colored suit, with a dark brown stripe on the pant legs. He also wore several service ribbons. He was attentively alert to his king and on several occasions came to a snappy salute as the royal couple passed by.

General Eisenhower, ever the genial, courteous host, appeared to enjoy himself as much as the king. Repeatedly, the king would step aside and urge General Eisenhower to take the lead. But the former President, smiled and said, "After you, Your Majesty" and King Zaher would bow politely and move ahead. These gestures were hardly noticed and did not interrupt the moving schedule.

Mrs. Eisenhower pointed to the Blue Mountains to the west of her home and told the queen how "beautiful they are most of the time, and such a colorful view."

GRACIOUS PAIR

While in the fitting barn Mrs. Eisenhower noticed a blotch of white on the black suit of the queen's lady in waiting. "My," she said, "you must have accidentally brushed against one of the stalls. Here, let me brush it off." She accepted a white handkerchief from General Robert L. Schulz, her husband's executive assistant and former military aide, and brushed off the dirt. The lady-in-waiting blushed and graciously thanked Mamie.

QUEEN IS PLEASED

General Eisenhower explained to the king that he raises Angus to sell to large breeders who wish to strengthen their herds.

At the entrance to the fitting

HILL DIVORCE IS GRANTED

The Adams County court Saturday granted Dr. Raymond P. Hill, 412 York St., a divorce from Peggy P. (Warpula) Hill, whose last known address after leaving Gettysburg was York.

In granting the divorce, the court handed down an opinion stating that the master recommended the divorce on grounds of infidelity and indignities to the person. "The testimony indicated" an act of adultery on the part of the defendant on April 6, 1961. The parties did not separate, but lived together, until January 31, 1962. Under provisions of Section 52 of the Divorce Law, it is provided that in any action for divorce for the cause of adultery, if it shall appear in evidence that the plaintiff has admitted the defendant into conjugal society or embrace after he knew of the criminal act, it shall be a good defense against the same. Where husband and wife are living in the same household there is a presumption of marital relations. It follows that a divorce cannot be granted in this case on the ground of adultery. However, the evidence is sufficient to establish indignities to the person and a divorce will be granted on that ground.

The divorce was one of six on which the court acted Saturday. In each case it was that of a husband seeking a divorce from a wife.

Four of the divorces were granted on the grounds recommended by the masters. They were the divorces of Jay Rodney Crouse, Gettysburg R. 6, from Lois Ann (Feoser) Crouse, 143 Lumber St., Littlestown; Donald B. Hess, Hanover R. 1, from Esther A. (Koonz) Hess, 139 Boyer St., Littlestown; Luther F. Spangler, Gettysburg R. 1, from Helen P. (Leister) Spangler, Steinwehr Ave., and Edward S. Starry, York Springs R. 2, from Evelyn I. (Harman) Starry, York Springs R. 2.

In the case of Richard C. Altland versus Fern Freda (Anderson) Altland the court handed down an opinion stating that the complaint in the case must be amended to include the lengths of time the two have "severally resided in the Commonwealth" and a "decree in divorce cannot be entered until the complaint is amended."

MISS AMERICA IS READY FOR TITLE DUTIES

NEW YORK (AP)—A year of excitement and glamor is under way today for Donna Axum, the Arkansas beauty who is Miss America of 1964.

Donna, 21, checked into a New York hotel Sunday night from the pageant at Atlantic City, N.J., for some solid rest before a full round of activities.

The figure that helped her defeat 51 other contestants and win the Miss America crown Saturday night may suffer if the pace becomes too hectic.

WALKING DOES IT
"I can walk around town and lose two pounds," the brown-eyed queen from El Dorado, Ark., said Sunday when asked how she maintained her 35-23-35 form.

"I like to eat and I do eat, everything and all the time, at regular meals and in between."

Donna is 5 feet 6½ inches tall and weighs 124 pounds. Donna's first ambition, after this year is over, is to return to the University of Arkansas, complete her education and then undertake graduate work in radio and television entertainment.

Royal Couple

barn the queen told the former President that she was sorry she did not meet him when he visited Afghanistan in 1959 because women in her country still wore veils. Now they don't. She said she was very happy to meet him and Mrs. Eisenhower at their farm and evidenced her pleasure with a broad smile.

During the inspection of the herd, Eisenhower laughingly said, as he pointed out a grand champion: "In the cow kingdom this fellow would be royalty." When the king received the interpretation he laughed heartily and patted the general on the arm.

When the royal party entered the fitting barn the large frames of blue, red and other ribbons, scores of them, were not noticed. When the king was leaving he spotted the bright ribbons and inspected each frame. They are the many ribbons the Eisenhower herd has won in recent years.

At 11:50 the party left the barn, returning to the big house in the same vehicles they had used before. The ladies remained at the house and General Eisenhower and the king rode in a limousine to another Eisenhower farm where they inspected another large herd which had been corralled by the herdsman and driven "on the run" to a small knoll where the general and his royal guest awaited them. The herd was carefully guided around the two men and off to another pasture. The king was delighted and he seemed to want to see more but he was then running past his schedule and the assistant chief of protocol of the U.S. State Department intimated that the party should be on its way.

The king said to his interpreter: "The affairs of state must wait. I'm enjoying myself."

At the big house once more the royal visitors were introduced to the Eisenhowers' son and daughter-in-law, Col. and Mrs. John S. Eisenhower, and their four children, David, 15; Anne, 14; Susan, 11, and Mary Jean, 7. The royal party was served coffee on the glass enclosed front porch after which they again heeded the request of the photographers for a group photograph on the lawn.

ALL WAVE GOODBYE
Then the group moved to the copter area where handshakes and goodbyes were in order. Each expressed pleasure at their meeting and, when King Zahir reached down to shake hands with 11-year-old Mary Jean, he patted her on the cheek and then raised the tips of his fingers to his lips.

Their majesties walked to the copter, stood in the doorway and waved repeatedly to the Eisenhower families who returned each hand-wave. An officer then closed the door and the royal couple stepped to a large window and resumed their waving. The Eisenhowers continued waving until the big bird's propellers picked up momentum, raised the craft and whirled away.

Enroute to the big house Eisenhower turned to a reporter for The Gettysburg Times, the only reporter present, and said, "They're nice people."

The royal couple gave every evidence that they, too, felt that the Eisenhowers are "nice people."

STEELS MOVE UP

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels moved forward in a mixed stock market early this afternoon with trading fairly active.

Gains and losses of most key stocks were fractional, some going to a point or so.

The "glamour" issues, as usual, provided some faster action—both ways.

A general retreat by rails was discouraging to stock market theorists who believe that rails must "confirm" the rise of industrials to provide the technical foundation for a continued market rise.

Wallace

(Continued From Page 1) Wallace said he took the action because "the threats of force and unwarranted integration of the public schools of this state is detrimental to the public interest."

The governor claimed in his orders "that integration of the public school will totally disrupt and effectively destroy the education process."

Police Capt. Jack Warren, on duty at one of the Birmingham schools, said that as far as he is concerned the schools are open for integration.

STATE TROOPERS

Twenty carloads of state troopers pulled up at Birmingham's West End High School where city policemen and sheriff's deputies had arrived earlier. Some of the state forces were in plain clothes with armbands reading "Alabama Department of Public Safety."

About 20 troopers arrived at Tuskegee. Troopers lined in front of the campus at Murphy High School at Mobile where two negroes registered Wednesday but did not attend classes.

The showdown came on the heels of more violence in racially-battered Birmingham. Two fire bombs were hurled at the home of a Negro millionaire, A. G. Gaston, early Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Gaston escaped injury and their $150,000 home was damaged only slightly.

In his television report a few hours later, Wallace again decried violence and urged Alabamians to continue their fight against integration lawfully.

Last Wednesday night dynamite bombs badly damaged the home of Arthur D. Shores, prominent Negro attorney, and police clashed with Negroes in the streets adjacent to his home. One Negro was killed and 20 persons injured in the rioting that followed.

STUDENT FROM ENGLAND LIKES TOWN ON VISIT

A roast beef dinner Saturday made Gettysburg exceptionally memorable to John March, 21-year-old University of Reading, England, graduate.

March is one of 79 members of his graduating class who chartered a plane to America 10 weeks ago, then scattered over the U.S. and Canada to see what they could see before meeting again in New York Sunday for the return flight to England.

March and a number of others are making the trip on $1 a day. Some of the more wealthy students are traveling on higher budgets.

The Haswell, England, resident left New York nine weeks ago for Canada, hitchhiked his way across Canada to the west coast, then came down into the U.S. and started back, sleeping where he could of nights, supplementing his $1 a day with such food as he might be given, traveling where the "rides went."

GETTYSBURG "BEST"

As a result, he visited Chicago without particularly intending to. He had hitched a ride, found the driver was going to Chicago and went there. He was greatly pleased with the city. From movies he had anticipated gangsters, but was pleased to find that instead Chicago was a huge, pleasant and busy metropolis.

Coming to Gettysburg because a driver who had picked him up came here, he was befriended by Mr. and Mrs. Curvin Reiss, Fifth St., and was their guest for the roast beef dinner. He found that in addition to the family's roast beef there was apple butter and smorgas, which he had never eaten before, but found delicious.

Sunday Heiss drove the young English student to Washington, enroute to New York, according to March's plans. March said Gettysburg was "the best place" he had found on his trip.

The youth noted that his weight, with knapsack on, is the same as it was nine weeks ago. During the trip he has lost 22 pounds, but his knapsack has gained that much with souvenirs of his tour.

The skirt flared out into a full sweep and ended in a chapel train. The gown featured appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace. Her bouffant veil of imported pure silk illusion fell from a pillbox of matching lace and peau de soie trimmed with tiny seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white fuji chrysanthemums and pompons.

Her maid of honor, Miss Aurelia J. Spence, Chicago, wore a gown of mandarin blue taffeta trimmed with velvet, fashioned with scoop neckline, elbow length sleeves and velvet midriff. The long controlled skirt featured long detachable panels trimmed in velvet and she wore a matching taffeta headpiece with veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of shell pink carnations, sweetheart roses and ivy.

The honorary attendants were Mrs. John W. Lord III, Wayne, Pa., roommate of the bride at Elizabethtown College; Mrs. David M. English, Littleton, Col.; Mrs. Jonathan Street Minnich; Mrs. David R. Dyke, sister of the groom, Omaha, Neb.; Miss Deanne Nepstad, Mitchell, S. D.; and Miss Evelyn R. Bertorello, Montrose, Col. Their gowns and flowers matched those of the maid of honor.

The bride's mother was attired in a dress of ivory and seafoam brocade with green accessories and she wore a corsage of green cymbidium orchids. The groom's mother wore a beige silk sheath featuring a beige lace bodice, with beige accessories, and a corsage of brown cymbidium orchids.

Following a reception at the Gettysburg Country Club the couple left on a 10-day wedding trip to New England and Canada. For traveling the bride chose a three-piece ensemble in plum with navy accessories. Upon their return they will reside at 3830 Columbia Pike, Arlington 1, Va.

charge and it was during that pastorate that he performed his first wedding ceremony and conducted one of his first funerals.

MANY VISITORS

He preached Sunday afternoon on "The Roads That Lead to God" and it was his discussion of that topic that he pointed up the need for greater attention to be given to be given to "educating our young people in the church and the home in our Christian faith."

Prayer was offered by the Rev. Amos D. Meyers, York Springs, also a former pastor of the York Springs Charge, and there was special music by a women's sextet from the Harmony Bethel Church of God, near Dillsburg.

During a roll call of visitors, many in the congregation identified themselves as former members of Rock Chapel, recalled church and Sunday School activities there as well as numerous revival services. Visitors were present from Carlisle, Lancaster, Wellsville and many parts of this county. A group of Gettysburg Methodists said they were attending to present a special offering in memory of Mrs. Annie Tate, a former teacher of their class. An offering was received toward the upkeep of the church.

Flowers in the sanctuary were in memory of Isaac Sadler, William Kennedy and Mrs. William H. Albright, who died since last year's home-coming service. Miss Rachel Gochenauer gave the annual financial report.

COMMANDERS

meet for final briefing on the plans for the afternoon session.

REVIEW SOLDIER'S DAY

Starting at 2 o'clock various units will present demonstrations of Civil War drills, firing of cannon muskets, etc., for about an hour. Then the re-enactment portion will begin, showing first the start of day in each camp. Soldiers will be shown getting up, having breakfast, standing roll call, etc.

Included will be three drills that occurred relatively infrequently during the war but which impressed the soldiers greatly: the drumming of an undesirable soldier out of camp and the shooting of spies and deserters.

400 TO PARTICIPATE

A visitation of wives and children to the camps will be shown and then the skirmish lines between the two camps will begin firing. The battle will build up with the cannon joining in. Sharpshooters will "pick off" men in the field and in turn will be "cleaned out" of trees. The battle will continue to gain momentum with cavalry joining the fray and more and more troops being committed until all of the more than 400 men registered for the event will be committed to the battle. The re-enactment, of no particular battle, is designed to show the type of maneuver and tactics used in many of the battles of the conflict.

Approximately 400 pounds of black powder is to be used during the event. Heiss reported that the powder was enroute here by train. The unit commanders present told him not to worry about whether it will arrive on time. The men will bring their own powder with them and can be reimbursed afterward.

cided that the "exclusionary rule for illegally obtained evidence" extends also to the state courts.

The Adams County court decision on extending the "exclusionary rule" to the present case will be one of the first such decisions in the Commonwealth, District Attorney Daniel T. Teeter said, and as such will help "make law" for the Commonwealth either way it is decided. Teeter said he could not immediately find any court decisions in Pennsylvania pertaining to the matter since the Supreme Court 1961 case.

Attorney Teeter was given until September 25 to file his brief in the matter.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

A Confederate dollar bill is now worth in dimes just nine and three-quarter cents. Out of the Confederacy it is perfectly worthless.

Paper is so scarce in the South that the editor of the Morning Traction writes his editorials with stolen chalk on the sole of his boot and goes barefooted while his boy sets up the manuscript.

School Matters: We understand that the School Board of this District have effected a radical change in the arrangement of the Public Schools. The experience of four or five years has proven the system of Principal and vice Principal a failure and it has been abolished. Hereafter the schools will be graded from Nos. 1 and 2 up to No. 8, each teacher being made directly responsible to the Board for failure or success in their respective schools. To effect this change an expenditure of about $425 will be necessary in changing the upper floor to accommodate four schools instead of one. The Board, however, by this change, not only expect a more satisfactory administration but will save $162 annually, in reduced salaries — quite an item to the taxpayers. The following teachers have been elected for the ensuing year: School No. 1—Mr. George W. Frederick; No. 2, Robert A. Lytle; No. 3, Miss J. G. Whiteside; No. 4, Miss S. Myers; No. 5, Miss R. Belch; No. 6, Miss S. Witherow; No. 7, Miss V. Gilbert; No. 8, Miss L. Swope. The occupation of the school building as a Hospital has delayed the necessary repairs and the Schools will not be opened until about the 1st of October.

Motherless Children: The Provost Marshal General has decided that one motherless child under twelve years of age, dependent upon its father's labor for support, exempts the father from service under the enrollment act. It has also been decided that when the father marries again the children are still motherless as "a stepmother is not believed to be a mother, in the sense of the enrollment of the act." These decisions are of great importance to the public as the section of the act relating thereto has been the cause of considerable discussion.

Hardware And Groceries: The subscribers have just returned from the cities with an immense supply of HARDWARE & GROCERIES, which they are offering at their old stand in Baltimore street, at prices to suit the times. Our stock consists in part of BUILDING MATERIALS, CARPENTER'S TOOLS, BLACKSMITH'S TOOLS, COACH FINDINGS, SHOE FINDINGS, CABINET MAKER'S TOOLS, HOUSEKEEPER'S FIXTURES, ALL KINDS OF IRON, ETC., GROCERIES OF ALL KINDS. Oils, Paints, Etc. etc. There is no article included in the several departments mentioned above but what can be had at this store. Every class of Mechanics can be accommodated here with tools and findings, and Housekeepers can find every article in their line. Give us a call as we are prepared to sell as low for cash as any house out of the City.

Today's Talk

HUMAN APPRAISAL

The finest democracy is that of the mind, wherein tolerance, sincerity, freedom of expression, and open-mindedness reside and function.

Human values far outclass all other values of a material nature. And imbedded in these human values are the most precious of all values — man's spiritual values. You cannot fairly and accurately appraise any human being and leave out consideration of these.

William Hazlitt loved London — largely because he could meet a democratic group of people and enter the talk and society of each — provided that each in the group had something to say that was worth listening to. There could be a banker, a writer, a day laborer, and a scholar present — each with his own viewpoint that would be interesting to all.

There is too much monetary appraisal these days — judging, or condescending to a man, because he has inherited, or been able to earn, wealth. You cannot construct a creative brain out of gold! What does it matter how much family you have sprung so long as you don't amount to anything? On the other hand, all glory to that one who has risen from the depths of obscurity and poverty through the force of his mind and character!

The story has been told of Lafcadio Hearn being entertained in a noted New York club one evening. Being very shy, however, he kept himself in the shadow, so to speak. Presently William Dean Howells, at that time dean of American letters, asked who that "little man" was. When advised, he immediately rushed to him, told him of the admiration he had for his writing arousing this shy man to animation, both meeting on a common ground, appraising the worth of each.

The most intelligent and learned can profit by talk with the most unlearned if that one has used his God-given gift of observation and of thought. You don't have to be a college graduate to know things and to be highly intelligent and educated. Human appraisal must consider first and foremost consideration of the mind and heart of a human being. The rest is merely for biographers and encyclopedias.

Just Folks

'T WAS ALWAYS SO
Time was that my grandfather, shaking his head,
Looked at us youngsters and openly said,
From the way we were going as fast as we could
'T was plain to be seen that we'd come to no good.
And I knew, for I got it from old Uncle Jim,
That's what his grandfather said about him.

My grandfather said: "Just get after that child!
I can't understand why you let him run wild,
These new fangled notions are certain to fail.
You mark me, that rascal will end up in jail."
Yet well I remember that my Uncle Jim
Told me that his grandfather said that of him.

Go back through the ages and hark to the old,
The boys are too wild and the girls are too bold.
They young generation's behavior is such
No one has a chance of amounting to much!
Yet I chuckle as graybeards my youngsters condemn,
That's just what their grandfathers said about them.

Directory: Mr. Frank E. Warren has just issued a "Vest Pocket Directory of Gettysburg." It is neatly printed and contains much valuable and interesting information not only to the residents of Gettysburg but to the tourists who visit the battlefield. Among its contents will be found a good directory of the citizens, churches, societies, business directory, game laws, list of monuments and much other matter. Every one should have a copy.

LITTLESTOWN — The September junior sermon on the subject "The Sunflower," was presented by the Rev. Glenn Flinchbaugh, pastor at the Sunday morning worship service in Redeemer's United Church of Christ. The Scripture lesson was read from Romans 14:23 and the morning message was on the theme "The Three R's of Christianity." Thank You For Another Successful FAIR!

Thank you very much for the wonderful response to our 40th Annual South Mountain Fair — to the thousands of people who attended the Fair, to the hundreds of volunteer men and women of Adams County who unselfishly devoted their time before and during the Fair, all of the commercial, educational and agricultural exhibitors and the many advertisers who made our annual Premium Book possible.

We are planning on our 1964 South Mountain Fair for a bigger and better Fair than ever, and again we think you for making possible this great South Mountain Fair.

Bermudian Springs Laced 42-0 By Northern Gridders At Dillsburg On Saturday

Bermudian Springs High school gave new head coach Tom Shreiner a cold welcome as his Eagles suffered a humiliating 42-0 lacing at the hands of Northern High School, Saturday afternoon in Dillsburg in the opening contest of the new season for both schools.

The Bermudian squad, which has been cut to 21 members since the first day of preseason drills, had trouble finding itself. They were unable to handle the tough, fast moving Polar Bears' first unit, but managed to stay with the second and third teams. Northern utilized two units throughout the game and came in with its third team at the end of each half.

Junior Ed Danner, although not a polished quarterback, caused plenty of trouble with his snappy handoffs and running ability on the option. Another big thorn in the Eagles' side was tackle Dan Reinhardt. Reinhardt, who stands 6'5" and tips the scales at 246, couldn't be budged from his left tackle slot and likewise couldn't be stopped when he ripped through to haul down the Bermudian backs. Reinhardt also had a perfect day in the extra point department as he booted six for six including a placement from the 13-yard line following a five yard off sides penalty.

SWIFT START

Northern carried off a 20-0 lead at intermission with all the scoring coming in the first quarter. On the first five plays of the game the Polar Bears scored with fullback Vern Vandevender ripping off 19 yards through the right guard slot. Seconds later end Dick Stevens intercepted a Larry Bobb pass and advanced 17 yards to the Eagles' three. Three plays later Danner went over from the one.

The following kickoff squashed Bermudian. End Bill Hinkle took the kickoff, handed-off to Bobb, who in turn attempted another lateral, but Northern tackle Don Elmore zipped through, picked off the ball and raced nine yards into the end zone for the score. Jim Young tallied the final TD of the quarter when he capped an eleven yard drive with a one-play plunge up the middle.

Northern scored in the late seconds of the third period after driving 48 yards following a Bermudian punt. Danner, on the option, kept the ball and raced 12 yards around left end following six plays. The final TD of the game came midway through the final period. After George Reid intercepted a Bobb pass to give Northern possession on the Bermudian 29, quarterback Carlos Rosenberger, again on the keeper, skirted right end for six points.

EAGLE "THREATS"

Bermudian's deepest penetration in the first half was to the Northern 49. Late in the fourth quarter, the Eagles again moved the ball past the 50-yard line when they advanced to the Polar Bear 44 only to have a pass intercepted.

Coach Shreiner will send his squad through some tough paces during the next few days to prepare them for Juniata Joint next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Biglerville High School field. The contest is considered a home game for the Eagles.

WARREN SPAHN TIES HURLING VICTORY MARK

Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Warren Spahn had just defeated the Philadelphia Phillies for his 20th victory of the year, tying the fabled Christy Mathewson's National League record of 13 20-victory seasons, when someone said, "Hey, old man, when are you going to quit?"

"I can't afford to quit, need the money," said Spahn, who is baseball's highest paid pitcher.

"You can't afford to quit," interrupted catcher-first baseman Gene Oliver. "We can't afford to have you quit. How can we give away 20 games?"

The banter swirled around the clubhouse of the Milwaukee Braves Sunday as the 42-year-old Spahn received congratulations on his latest pitching feat.

Reminded that Stan Musial was calling it a career at 42, Spahn joked, "He can afford it. He's a rich man."

Then, in a more serious vein, Spahn said winning 20 games a season meant job security.

"It means I have a job next year," he said.

"Look at it this way," he explained. "If I win 12 or 13 games, they have a lot of young fellows on this club who can do that. They don't have to pay me the kind of money I make. I have to uphold my reputation."

Harking back to the question about quitting, Spahn said he had no thoughts of retirement, that as long as he can get the hitters out he'll keep on pitching.

Spahn's 20th victory came in a 1-0 win over the Philadelphia Phillies Sunday afternoon at the Veterans Stadium.

Spahn, who is 42, pitched 10 1/3 innings, allowing only one run, three hits and one walk. He struck out 11 batters.

Scranton Has Used Prestige To Change Old Constitution

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton has set a precedent in throwing the full weight of his administration behind proposals for constitutional reform.

It is true that other recent governors have supported proposals for changes in the state's 90-year-old basic law. But none previously has set up campaign machinery to implement his support. Nor has any previous governor banked so much of his own political prestige on such a question.

The projected campaign in support of reform will have all of the earmarks of a regular political campaign. Reform will be pushed like a prize candidate. It should. Both the Democratic and Republican organizations have been enlisted in support of the effort. Both have indicated they intend to push for a favorable vote. That means support at the precinct level, where it counts.

CONVENTION QUESTION

The main question on the Nov. 5 ballot, of course, is the one asking voters whether they favor the holding of a convention next year to rewrite the basic law. That also is the question which will get the most direct attention from the governor's office.

A committee was organized under government auspices this week to press for a favorable vote. LA. Gov. Raymond P. Shafer, a Republican, and Secretary of Internal Affairs Genevieve Blatt, a Democrat, are co-chairmen.

It is something of a political paradox that along with Gov. Scranton putting his personal prestige on the block for voter approval or disapproval, both major parties also have staked a fair amount of their prestige. It would be a severe blow to the ego of both organizations, not to mention the governor, if the voters turned down the convention question.

OTHER ISSUES

Two other constitutional questions on the November ballot will come in for the campaign treatment.

One would amend the present

Injured Climber Will Climb Again

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP)—William F. Mansou said Saturday he plans to climb mountains again despite the amputation of nine toes frostbitten in his Mount Everest climb.

Doctors at Mission Hospital here cut off nine of his toes last Tuesday.

Unsoiled, of Corvallis, Ore., told reporters today he expects to be able to walk again by the beginning of next year.

The deputy leader of the Peace Corps in Nepal said he, his wife and children plan to visit Europe late next year for climbing in the Swiss Alps.

constitution to allow the state to make scholarship grants and loans to students. The other would authorize the state to borrow up to $70 million through direct obligation bonds to finance park development and conservation.

Each of the three questions has its own committee. In each case the government-centered support is superimposed on a statewide network of civic organizations already dedicated to the objectives.

3 CORNERSTONES

Thus, the questions have the three cornerstones that make a successful political campaign—government recognition and support; political organization; citizen participation.

Like other campaigns in recent years, the main effort for constitutional reform may center in Philadelphia. The reason in this campaign is that Philadelphia most likely will have a much larger percentage of its large bloc of voters turn out than other regions.

The city is going into a mayoral campaign that promises to heat up rapidly. In fact it already is quite warm. Republicans, headed by candidate James T. McDermott, feel they have their first chance in years to crack the powerful city Democratic organization.

McDermott is opposing incumbent mayor James H. J. Tate.

Whatever the outcome may be, voters of all persuasions sense the possibility of a GOP upset in the air. In turn, that means a probable big turnout at the polls.

And a by-product of the turnout will be a large number of votes—hopefully—on the constitutional questions.

PARENTS FACE SCHOOL ISSUE IN NEW YORK

WELLSVILLE, N. Y. (AP)—Roman Catholic parents, told by a priest they could not send children to both parochial and public schools, have withdrawn about 50 children from a church school.

The Very Rev. Norman J. O'Meara, supervisory principal of Immaculate Conception School, said that under Canon Law Catholic children shall not attend denominational schools.

They said the parents must decide to send all their children to either a public school or a parochial school.

Mrs. O'Meara said the action was based upon a concern that the unity of the church and the school would be damaged by a division of families.

The parents who withdrew the children Thursday from the Catholic school in this western New York village had other children in public schools. The children were immediately enrolled in a public elementary and a public junior high school.

In a letter to parents, Msgr. O'Meara said, "We want 100 percent backing in actual fact. Ultimately it resolves itself by placing all your children in our school, or all your children in public schools."

"If you have any children eligible for our school, we feel they should be here. We don't want one or two of them, but all of them."

Enrollment of Immaculate Conception, which includes the elementary through ninth grades, dropped to 260 after the withdrawal.

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Indonesian civil defense and Red Cross officials said today they are waiting for detailed reports from Bali Island on the volcanic eruption of Gunung Batur, also known as Mt. Friend.

The officials said the volcano had erupted after months of rumbling activity, but they said they did not know whether there were any casualties or damage.

Gunung Batur is about half the size of 10,308-foot Gunung Agung, which erupted without warning last March, killing more than 1,500 persons and leaving 300,000 others homeless.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union has protested to the United States the signing of the limited nuclear test ban treaty by Nationalist China in Washington last month.

The protest appeared to be designed to placate the Communist Chinese who described Nationalist China's signature as an "act of betrayal" by the Soviet leaders toward Peking.

The official Tass news agency reported Friday the protest was handed to the State Department with a reminder that Moscow's non-recognition of President Chiang Kai-shek's government was made clear to the United States and Britain when the treaty was being negotiated.

ROME (AP)—Archbishop Ngo Dinh Thue was quoted Saturday as saying the United States spent $20 million in an effort to replace his brother, President Ngo Dinh Diem of South Viet Nam.

The 65-year-old Roman Catholic prelate arrived Friday from Saigon to attend the Vatican Ecumenical Council which resumes Sept. 29 after a nine-month recess.

The prelate's views were quoted by the independent newspaper, Giornale D'Italia.

VENICE, Italy (AP)—Expatriate Ezra Pound says he hopes to visit his native United States again soon because things have changed.

The controversial 77-year-old poet was indicted on treason charges in World War II for pro-fascist broadcasts in Italy but was never brought to trial on grounds he was mentally incompetent to defend himself. He was confined, D.C., from 1946 to 1958, when he returned to Italy.

Pound insisted he had committed no betrayal and in April 1958 the treason charges were dismissed.

A Lovelier You

LIPSTICK BOUTIQUE. Cosmetic color experts have come up with a great idea—a lipstick duo in shades that mate or harmonize with every hue on fashion's autumn palette. It's like having your own little boutique of lipstick colors.

Shade 1, a zingy pinked-purple, is the perfect complement of all blues and violets in fashion. Shade 2, a glowing coral, looks mouth-watering with the new rind greens and the entire brown family, from fawn to ginger to jet.

Wear the coral shade atop the rose, and an entirely different color emerges. Together they make a mellow red that adds the proper dash to salt-and-pepper tweeds, black and red, itself.

With the need to make a quick change of lipstick with quick costume changes, fashion models have always worked on the principle that one plus one equals three lip shades. But finding the right combinations was a trial-and-error proposition. Now it's a sure thing, predetermined by the trained eye.

pretty haphazard unless applications are flawless. Of course that's true of any lipstick. For appeal, lips must have a petal finish—a clean, gentle outline and a satin fill-in.

There can be no gross exaggerations of the lipline, no ragged edges, no surface scuff. If you must overlap or undercut the natural line for improved proportions, by all means do so but be sure you make a real smooth job of it.

TURNCOAT IS HAPPY IN U.S.

HONG KONG (AP) — Korean war turncoat Scott L. Rush said Saturday he regretted his decision to go to Communist China after the Korean War.

"Only God knows why," the 31-year-old former U.S. Army sergeant told a news conference.

"I made a foolish mistake," Rush, of Marietta, Ohio, arrived from Red China at noon with his Chinese wife and year-old daughter.

"I have seen both sides and I think our system will work better," he said.

Rush described conditions in Red China from 1958 to the end of 1960 as "hell." He said no Communist regime would have lasted long if things were to remain the same as they were then.

He attributed Red China's "hard time" to the weather and Russian pressure for Korean War debts.

THE DOBBIN FAMILY

The notes on the family of the Rev. Alexander Dobbin, of the Associate Reformed Church (Presbyterian), in this County, are continued at this time.

Buried in Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian graveyard — in the Dobbin family plot are the following — in addition to those listed in last week's column:—

3. "In memory of — William Dobbin — who departed this life — April 8th, 1802 — Aged 21 years."

Note:— The fourth son of the Rev. Alexander and Isabella (Gamble) Dobbin — William Dobbin was born July 17, 1780.

4. "In memory of — Joseph Dobbin — who departed this life — May the 1st, 1802 — Aged 19 years."

Note:— The fifth son of the Rev. Alexander and Isabella (Gamble) Dobbin — Joseph Dobbin was born October 7th, 1782.

It will be noted that only 29 days elapsed between the deaths of William and Joseph Dobbin. According to a fairly reliable tradition both died in the old stone house in Gettysburg — still known as the Dobbin house. It is quite possible that both young men died of typhoid fever. It will be remembered that some years later, when the Gettys family lived in the same house, several members died of that disease — apparently caused by contaminated water.

5. "In memory of — James Dobbin — who departed this life — October 6th, 1832 — Aged 75 years."

Note:— The second son of the Rev. Alexander and Isabella (Gamble) Dobbin — James Dobbin was born January 14, 1777.

"Adams Sentinel," Monday, October 11, 1832 —

"Died, Wednesday, October 6th, 1832, after a long illness, James Dobbin, Esq., attorney-at-law, of this borough, in the 76th year of his age. Mr. Dobbin was the oldest practitioner at the bar of this county, having been admitted to practice in 1801. He sustained a high reputation for his classical learning and legal attainments. Somewhat eccentric in his character, however, he was not enabled in his later years to turn his varied knowledge to the valuable account it might have been by others not similarly affected."

6. This grave is to be found in the Agnew family burial plot — Here lies the body of — Mary Dobbin — widow and relict of — Rev. Alexander Dobbin, dec'd. — And previously Widow and Relict — of David Agnew, Dec'd., — who departed this life — August 31st, 1824 — In the 61st year of her age."

Note:— Mary Erwin, the wife of David Agnew, Revolutionary officer and soldier, who died January 17th, 1797. In 1801 Mary (Erwin) Agnew married the Rev. Alexander Dobbin. The second Mrs. Dobbin is buried by the side of her first husband.

"Adams Centinel," Wednesday, September 8, 1824 —

"Died, Tuesday evening, August 31, 1824, near this borough, Mrs. Mary Dobbin, relict of the Rev. Alexander Dobbin, aged about 70 years."

In addition to the children of the Rev. Alexander and Isabella (Gamble) Dobbin already listed — note must also be taken of the other children born of this union — as follows:—

1. John Dobbin — born December 27, 1774 — the first child and eldest son — nothing further is known pertaining to this member of the Dobbin family.

2. Alexander Dobbin (second of the name) — born September 18, 1778.

Note:— "Adams Centinel," Wednesday, October 23, 1822 —

Died, Wednesday morning, October 16, 1822, in the 44th year of his age, Mr. Alexander Dobbin. His loss will be very sensibly felt — for he was a most active and useful citizen, and possessed, in the greatest degree, the confidence and esteem of all who knew him."

Very obviously Alexander Dobbin died in or near Gettysburg and is buried in the family burial plot in Lower Marsh Creek Churchyard in a grave that is now unmarked.

6. Daniel Dobbin — born June 29, 1784 —

Note:— Adams Sentinel, "Monday, March 4, 1844 —

"Died, February 27, 1844, at Bellefonte, Pennsylvania, Doctor Daniel Dobbin, formerly of this County, aged 59 years."

7. Matthew Dobbin — born March 21, 1786 —

Note:— Matthew Dobbin died at Quincy, Franklin County, Penn.

sylvania, and is buried there. He was, in the days before the Civil War, the "Captain" of an Underground Railroad Station, located near that place, and was very active in the work pertaining thereto.

8. Mary Dobbin (the first daughter to bear the given name of "Mary") — born January 5, 1788.

Note:— Apparently this child died young and is buried in a grave that is now unmarked in the family plot in Lower Marsh Creek graveyard.

10. Isabella Dobbin — born September 10, 1791 —

Note:— "Adams Centinel," 1812 —

"Married, December 24, 1812, by the Rev. David McConaughy, of this County, Mr. John Edie, Junior, to Miss Isabella Dobbin, the daughter of the Rev. Alexander Dobbin, deceased both of this County."

"Adams Sentinel," Monday, June 17, 1844 —

"Died, Monday morning, June 10, 1844, at Baltimore, Maryland, after a lingering illness, Mrs. Isabella Edie, widow of Mr. John Edie Jr., and daughter of the Rev. Alexander Dobbin, dec'd., formerly of Gettysburg, Pennsylv.

vania, in the 53rd year of her age."

An additional note on Dr. Daniel Dobbin — which gives an approximate idea of when he left this county to practice his profession at Bellefonte, Pennsylvania.

"Adams Centinel," Wednesday, September 12, 1804 —

"Take Notice — The Subscriber, intending to leave Gettysburg, desires those indebted to him to come forward and make payment without delay or further trouble; he also returns thanks to his friends and the public for their generous custom. Alexander Dobbin, Junior.

"All unpaid accounts will be placed in the hands of James Dobbin, Esq."

These notes will be continued next week.

Seven Are Arrested For Demonstration

BOWIE, Md. (AP)—Seven persons were arrested Sunday for protesting the refusal of housing developer William Levitt to sell to Negroes.

The arrests, on trespassing warrants sworn out by an official of Levitt and Sons, Inc., were made at the sales office of the Levitt development known as Belair.

Zehy brought to 19 the number of persons arrested over the weekend for demonstrations at Belair.

Levitt, who has built houses for sale to both Negro and white persons in other states, has said he will not sell to Negroes in Belair unless state and local customs and laws are changed.

Police said young Conway's body was found in the bathroom with bullet holes in his back and head.

QUAD'S DAD HAS PROBLEMS

By DUDLEY LEHEW

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—"It's a good thing I own my grocery," said the proud father of girl quadruplets, "I'd be in real trouble if I didn't."

The biggest problem — other than diapers—now facing Mr. and Mrs. Thomas N. Harkins of Jackson is finding names for the quads.

Until then, they are "A," "B," "C" and "D."

The multiple birth Saturday night boosted the Harkins family to nine children. The oldest Harkins child is 6.

"BETTER SIT DOWN"

Doctors at St. Dominic's Hospital removed the Harkins quads — who all have long, black hair and a healthy wail—from twin incubators late Sunday.

Mrs. Harkins said she had been expecting twins.

"I even thought of triplets. But four!"

The father, 50, first saw his new daughters Saturday night when a nurse approached him and warned "Mr. Harkins, you'd better sit sit down."

"Here's three of them," said the nurse. "But I think there's another."

The first quad was born at 8:53 p.m. and the last one nine minutes later. Their weights range from 3 pounds, 3 ounces to 4 pounds, 11 ounces.

PICK PACKERS TO MAKE RUN FOR 3RD TITLE

By BOB GREEN

The Farmers Almanac says that it's going to be cold with the possibility of snow in Green Bay, Wis., Dec. 29. The Las Vegas bookies say there's a probability that there'll be a National Football League playoff game there, too.

The mighty Packers open defense of their Western Division and league titles this weekend and there was nothing in the pre-season exhibitions that suggested the loss of Paul Hornung will prevent them from making it four division and three NFL crowns in a row.

The Packers polished off Washington 28-17 in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Saturday night for their fifth straight exhibition victory after an embarrassing 20-17 loss to the College All-Stars in Chicago.

FINE RECORD

Against strictly professional opposition, they have the best record, 5-0, and have allowed fewer points, 58, than any other team in the league and are second in team scoring, 136, over the exhibition season.

The exhibition season closed with Pittsburgh edging Cleveland in the Hall of Fame dedication game in Canton, Ohio, Sunday before a crowd of 18,462.

That boosted the league's pre-season attendance to a record 1,108,636 for 33 dates, an average of 32,919.

In Saturday Games, Chicago beat Baltimore 14-7, dropping the Colts from the ranks of the unbeaten in the feature of a double-header in New Orleans that drew 51,218 to the Sugar Bowl. Dallas beat Detroit in the opener. New York's defending Eastern Division champions finally jelled and romped over Philadelphia 34-10 at Princeton, N.J., and Los Angeles beat San Francisco 17-0 at Los Angeles.

The American Football League opened regular season play with the defending champion Kansas City Chiefs romping 59-7 at Denver and Oakland upsetting the Oilers 24-13 at Houston in Saturday night games. Sunday, Boston beat New York 38-14 in Boston and San Diego scored a 14-10 victory at home over Buffalo.

In the NFL regular season openers, Detroit, 2-3 in exhibition play, is at Los Angeles, 2-3, and St. Louis, 2-2, is at Dallas, 3-2, in Saturday games. Sunday, Chicago, 3-2, is at Green Bay Minnesota, 4-1, at San Francisco, 0-5 New York, 2-3, at Baltimore, 4-1 Pittsburgh, 3-2, at Philadelphia, 2-3 and Washington, 0-4, at Cleveland, 2-3.

CRASH KILLS DRIVER'S DAD

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Cecil F. Pierce, 49, of Rising Sun, Md., was killed Sunday night when a car driven by his son crashed into a tree on Route 22 near Mechanics Grove in Lancaster County.

Pierce's wife, Helen the son, Cecil Pierce Jr., 21, of Rising Sun, R. 2; Young Pierce's wife, Mary Ann, 21, Grover Winnick, 31, of Rising Sun, R. 2, and Patricia Lamkin, 19, of Conowingo, Md., were seriously injured.

INJURED IN HOSPITAL

The injured were taken to St. Joseph's General and Lancaster General Hospitals.

The elder Mrs. Pierce and Miss Lamkin suffered possible fractured legs. Young Pierce suffered leg injuries and possible fractured ribs his wife head injuries, possible fractured leg and back injuries and Winnick multiple lacerations and possible internal injuries.

Police said the group was heading home from a party in Lancaster when the car failed to negotiate a curve.

Mother, Daughter Die In Farm Pond

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A coroner has ruled that Mrs. Mae Walton, 38, of Coopersburg, Lehigh County, and her daughter, Donna, 6, accidentally drowned in a farm pond near their home.

Coroner Clayton Werley said over the weekend the child apparently fell into the water while on the way to a picnic with her mother. The mother, he said, died trying to save her. He said neither could swim.

Children returning home from school discovered the bodies Friday.

Dupas Blasts Ref After Title Loss

MILAN, Italy (AP)—There were plenty of loud and angry cries from Ralph Dupas' corner but little comment today from Sandro Mazzinghi of Italy, the new world junior middleweight boxing champion.

Mazzinghi dethroned the New Orleans veteran Saturday night when he stopped Dupas in the ninth round. The Italian was in command almost all the way and in the ninth round Dupas with a right. Dupas tried to get up at the count of seven but wobbled around instead and the referee called a halt to the bout.

Mazzinghi was non-committal about a possible rematch, but there was plenty of yelling from Dupas and his official family.

"The referee had no right to stop the fight," Dupas said. "I was ready to fight and I fail to understand why he counted on until nine and 10."

COED CREDITED WITH FINDINGS IN KREBIOZEN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A senior coed at the University of Pennsylvania who works for the U.S. Food and Drug Administration during the summer has been credited with making the first discovery leading to ultimate government findings that the drug Krebiozen is ineffective in treating cancer.

Ruth Kessler, 20, of Silver Spring, Md., was assigned to the analysis of infra-red absorption as part of a team which the government says identified the proposed anti-cancer drug as a common amino acid called creatine.

The U.S. Welfare Department had forbidden any discussions on the experiments for several months prior to Saturday's official announcement.

"We weren't supposed to discuss it, so I didn't," said Miss Kessler. "But I knew what I was working on."

She worked with scientists whose task of matching Krebiozen with one of 20,000 other compounds she called an "almost impossible job."

It was Miss Kessler's second summer with the FDA. She hopes to enter medical school after completing her undergraduate work next spring at Penn.

WINS TITLE AT LANGHORNE

LANGHORNE, Pa. (AP)—All season long, A. J. Foyt had been driving one of Norman Nelson's 1963 Plymouths in the United States Auto Club races and had scored four victories this year to gain the lead in the national point scoring.

But last week, the Houston, Tex., veteran switched to a 1963 Ford.

Nelson, of Racine, Wis., who is quite a driver himself, immediately turned the Foyt car over to Paul Goldsmith, of St. Clair Shores, Mich., the former USAC champion.

Goldsmith, driving the 1963 Plymouth in which Foyt had set records for the mile and the 150-mile in May, Sunday won the 250-mile national championship for late model stock cars in a record time at Langhorne Speedway.

He shattered both the 250-lap and one-lap records as he scored his first Langhorne victory since 1957 and his second triumph of the 1963 season.

Goldsmith won the pole position with a 96.527 mph (37.295) qualifying lap to eclipse the 96.087 mph (37.466) mark set by Foyt in the 150 in May.

The Tigers had won the opener, 4-3, at Batavia Friday night.

NICKLAUS IS BIG WINNER IN SERIES GOLF

By JOE MOOSHL

Associated Press Sports Writer AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Tired, weary and upset, Jack Nicklaus, the Masters and PGA champion, still had enough steam left Sunday to turn back an Arnold Palmer challenge and repeat for the top prize of $50,000 in the $75,000 World Series of Golf.

The 23-year-old Buckeye belter from Columbus, Ohio, several times blew sizeable leads in the two-day playoff but came up with the necessary shots on crucial holes.

"The 13th hole was the big difference," said Nicklaus after pocketing his second World Series check along with a solid gold belt buckle. "I hadn't hit a fairway since the sixth hole and was starting to worry."

Palmer, who had been as much as five strokes behind, pulled even with Nicklaus after the 12th and then put his drive into the right rough, ran into tree trouble and took a double bogey six to fall three strokes behind Nicklaus who put his second shot on the green and then one-putted from 12 feet for his final birdie.

Jack settled down to par golf the rest of the way and kept ahead of U.S. Open champion Julius Boros who birdied four of the last six holes for a closing 69 and a 141 total to finish one stroke behind Nicklaus and pick up second-place money of $15,000.

Palmer was third with a 72 and 143 total and New Zealand left-hander Bob Charles, who went into the second round tied for first with Nicklaus, had a 77 for a 147, Palmer and Charles each picked up $5,000.

Nicklaus, "maybe three hours. I was still upset over what happened Saturday."

Nicklaus had a run in with two reporters who had taken certain remarks Nicklaus insists he made in jest and turned them into a serious story in which Nicklaus had said Palmer was an "also ran" and "didn't belong in the playoff of champions." Nicklaus made the remarks in Palmer's presence and both had laughed then off.

Palmer, still bothered by an ailing shoulder which he said is getting better, will go to California to finish filming a golf series and then will try to rest until the $125,000 Whitmarsh Open in Philadelphia.

CHIEFS ROUT BRONCOS ON DAWSON'S ARM

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Kansas City's quick-striking Chiefs, a pair of stars returned to health, and a Boston team apparently a lot better than it was supposed to be provided fireworks in the American Football League's opening action last weekend.

The Chiefs, league champions last year as the Dallas Texans, rode the passing of Len Dawson to a 59-7 rout of the Broncos at Denver Saturday night.

Tom Flores, back in the passing wars after recovering from a lung ailment, sparked the Oakland Raiders to a 24-13 upset triumph over the Oilers at Houston, also in a Saturday night game.

BILLS ARE BEATEN
And on Sunday—Paul Lowe, out last year with a broken arm, flashed 48 yards for the deciding touchdowns as the San Diego Chargers scored a 14-10 home victory over the Buffalo Bills, while the Boston Patriots smothered the New York Jets 38-14 at Boston.

Dawson threw four touchdown strikes as the Chiefs amassed 458 yards through the air in handing the Broncos their worst defeat in four AFL seasons.

Dave Grayson added another Kansas City six-pointer, sprinting 99 yards with the kickoff following Denver's lone touchdown, and linebacker Sherrill Headrick lumbered 33 yards into the end zone with an intercepted pass.

FLORES HELPS
Flores replaced Cotton Davidson in the second half at Houston with the Raiders behind 6-0 and quickly triggered a comeback with passes to Oakland's classy receivers, Art Powell and Bo Roberson.

A spectacular pass play covering 85 yards, Flores to Powell, gave Oakland its clinching touchdown in the closing period.

Bob Mitinger's interception of Jack Kemp's pass led to the Chargers' first touchdown, scored from one yard out by Bob Jackson after a 32-yard gain on a Tobin Rote-to-Frank Kocourek pass. Lowe put it away in the third period when he got loose on his long run.

The Patriots lost all five of their exhibition games — including one to New York — had been hobbled by injuries, and were supposedly vulnerable on pass defense. But they had little trouble with the Jets, the ex-Titans, who have been reshuffled from top to bottom but remain probably the league's weakest entry.

ALSTON FEELS DODGERS WILL NOT BLOW LEAD

By DICK BARNES

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Los Angeles Manager Walt Alston refuses to believe the Dodgers' 1962 collapse will affect their drive for the 1963 National League pennant despite the growing similarity of the two races.

"I've never won a pennant and had it affect the next year so I don't know why losing one should," Alston said quietly Sunday, after the Dodgers' lead had shrunk to 3½ games over St. Louis.

"When these fellows are pitching a ball or swinging a bat I doubt very much if they're thinking about last year."

STILL IN FRONT
"I feel pretty good—we're three and a half in front, aren't we?" But he didn't say that it was nearly four weeks since a pursuer had been that close to the Dodgers. Or that the Dodgers lost in '62 though they were four games ahead with only seven to play.

This year's race tightened when Orlando Cepeda blasted a three-run homer that brought San Francisco a 5-4 victory over the Dodgers Sunday, shortly after St. Louis stopped Pittsburgh 3-2.

ALSTON BRISTLES
Alston bristled when asked if he'd brought in his ace reliever so early because St. Louis' victory was on the scoreboard.

"The Cardinals have nothing to do with what I do," he said.

The Dodgers are off Monday, then play three games at Pittsburgh, four at Philadelphia and three at St. Louis before going home for their final nine games of the year.

"I sure couldn't tell you if the Cardinal series will decide the pennant," Alston said.

CBS COVERAGE OF PAGEANT IS "FASCINATING"

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—That true harbinger of fall, the annual Miss America pageant, arrived on CBS Saturday night and proved, as usual, to be a fascinating and often embarrassingly awful television program.

There is something at once dramatic and tragic about this yearly fuss over picking and crowning Miss America. While the official judges' votes are final, millions of television viewers have their own opinions about beauty and talent too.

For instance, the viewers at my house were pulling for Miss Alabama, mostly because she played the marimba. And it seemed, judging from the sounds coming from the set, that the crowd in the Atlantic City auditorium was loudly in Miss Hawaii's corner.

SORRY FOR LOSERS

But Miss Arkansas won, and she is certainly a pretty, poised and an obviously sincere young lady. But her demonstration of talent—singing "I Love Paris" while snatching on and off a pair of dark glasses and flinging a fur scarf around—completely eluded me.

The two hours were a field day for the nation's girl-watchers. The contestants were all fresh-faced, slim and pretty, once they abandoned those street clothes and overpowering hats in favor of ball gowns.

Bert Parks, an old hand at the game, was around to warble that stirring anthem, "There she is, Miss Am-air-icah," and keep things rolling when an occasional cue was missed.

Well, it's an autumn rite and now its over. Donna Axum won, and I feel sorry for the girls who lost, particularly the marimba player.

DOCKED SHIP IS BLASTED

CHICAGO (AP)—Police said an explosion ripped through the port side of the Canadian grain ship Howard L. Shaw on Saturday, the latest incident in a complicated labor dispute which has tied the ship up in the Calumet River since April.

Police reported no injuries, although members of the crew were on board at the time of the blast. The 450-foot ship was not believed in danger of sinking.

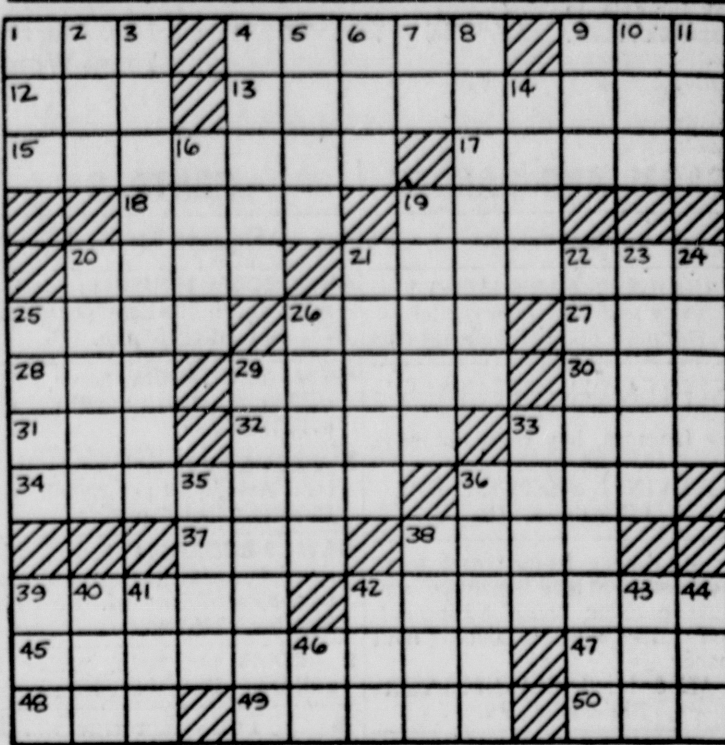

Cause of the blast, which blew a hole four feet wide and about six feet deep at the water line amidships, was not immediately determined. A Chicago police bomb squad was dispatched to the scene.

Windows in a grain elevator a block away were blown out. The Shaw has been tied up at Continental's elevator since April 22 due to union hiring protests.

COMPACT EXTENDED

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—The Interstate Compact For Conservation of Oil and Gas, composed of 30 oil producing states, will remain in effect for another four years. President Kennedy signed legislation Saturday extending the compact. It was formed in 1955 and has been extended periodically since then.

LONDON (AP) — Dr. Donald Coggan, archbishop of York, wants African churchmen to work as curates in British towns and villages to help break racial barriers.

The archbishop, second-ranking prelate of the Anglican Church, told newsmen on his return from the Anglican Congress in Toronto:

"Prejudice has got to be broken down. This might be a way to do it."

"Not only have Anglicans gifts to give to Africans, but Africans have gifts to give us. And that applies to India, the United States and South America."

Boys Sentenced To Write Essays

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—They who only stand and wait are better off than they who light a bonfire of newspapers to keep warm while waiting, three teen-age boys have learned.

Fire Prevention Bureau officials said the trio started the fire in an entryway to a temporarily closed school to warm their hands while waiting for their girl friends. No flagrant violation was noted, but a juvenile court judge ordered each to write a 1,000-word theme on "The Danger of Fires."

They learned their waiting was all in vain, too. They were at the wrong bus stop to meet the girls.
